

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE

JAMES STLOUIS,
PLAINTIFF,

v.

LT. CHERLY MORRIS, et al.,
DEFENDANTS.

C.A. 06-326-SLR

JURY TRIAL REQUESTED

PLAINTIFF MOTION TO COMPEL CORRECTIONAL MEDICAL SERVICE

The plaintiff asks this court for a motion to compel the medical service for the state of Delaware Correction to release the medical records of the plaintiff to him for the following reasons:

1. The defendant's attorney made it clear that these records are an important part of these proceedings when she not only asked in the disclosure paper work but also questioned plaintiff as to a doctor reliance on his claims of physical problems from the issues presented to this Court.
2. The issue of security does not exist with plaintiff's release of his medical records.
3. The plaintiff has asked the medical personnel to release them to him but has been ignored.(SEE EX. A)
4. Without these records the jury will not be able to see the full impact of the illegal actions taken on the plaintiff.
